In Memory of Mrs. Lecta Rider

Senator Moore offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 18)

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God, in His wisdom, to call from our midst Mrs. Lecta Rider, an ornament to the press of Texas, and to all the womanhood of this great State; and

Whereas, we recall her first of all as a woman of great personal charm, of the attainments which have graced Texas' finest women since the pioneer days; a person of high principle; a wife of noble quality, and a friend true and tried; and

Whereas, her position as a leader in the corps of Capitol correspondents was recognized by all; a recognition which included the knowledge that she was a remarkably able writer but, even more, a reporter of courage and integrity; a reporter who never violated a confidence yet who never was afraid to tell the truth as she found it; and

Whereas, as associate with her distinguished husband, Ed Rider, in representing the Houston Chronicle, she gave a dignity of tone, and a sureness of rectitude in her reporting and was, moreover, a good and loyal friend who could always be trusted implicitly; and

Whereas, her untimely death occurred in January of 1944 at which time the Senate of the State of Texas was not in session, and it was impossible before this regular session to memorialize her for her great qualities, and to take recognition of the service she rendered the people of Texas in her chosen profession; now

Therefore be it Resolved by the Senate of the State of Texas, That we, at this first opportunity, take cognizance of the death of this noble woman, that we pay well-deserved tribute to her achievements, that we sorrowfully record our loss, that we record this resolution in the Journal, and that we send a signed copy to her beloved husband, Ed Rider.

MOORE	MORRIS	STANFORD
LANNING	BROWN	MOFFETT
WEINERT	SPEARS	KELLEY
WINFIELD	GRAVES	HAZLEWOOD
VICK	MAURITZ	CARNEY
RAMSEY	METCALFE	LANE
SHIVERS	BULLOCK	SULAK
YORK	PARRISH	CRAWFORD
AIKIN	KNIGHT	STONE
CHADICK	TAYLOR	JONES
MARTIN

The resolution was read and was adopted unanimously by a rising vote of the Senate.
